

The experiment included 30 participants.

The participants were between 20 and 25 years old.

The experiment lasted 12 weeks.

The study was conducted at the University Research Center.

The treatment group received 10 mg of the compound daily.